MGT 400 Course Director

Integrity - Service - Excellence

Overview

- Background And Taskings
- Education Working Group
- Course Changes
- Revised Bodies Of Knowledge
- Future Offerings

Background

- MGT 400 Traditionally A Two Week In-residence Course
- The Audience Is Civil Engineer Squadron Commanders, Civil Engineer Squadron Commander Selectees, Base Civil Engineers, Deputy Base Civil Engineers
- Lessons Are Primarily Taught By Guest Speakers
  - Mostly Senior/Experienced Individuals
- "The Objective Of This Course Is For Each Student To Obtain And Sharpen Those Skills Necessary To Become An Effective Civil Engineer Unit Commander"

Taskings

- Program Review Committee (PRC) 03-06: Review The Content Of On-scene Commander's Course, Fire Marshall Course And CE Commander's Course To Ensure Excessive Redundancy Is Not Occurring, Investigate Possibilities Of Scheduling Course In Concert With Each Other To Minimize Impact On New BCEs
  - OPR: AFCESA/AFIT
- PRC 03-05: Send Out CE Commanders Course "Bodies Of Knowledge" To MAJCOM/CEs For Review Of Content And Relevance
  - OPR: AFIT

Education Working Group

- Col Jeffrey Leptrone, HQ AFCESA/CES
- Col Charles Smiley, 436 MSG/CC
- Lt Col Scott Jarvis, 366 CES/CC
- Lt Col Sal Nodjomian, 92 CES/CC
- Lt Col Randy Parker, 88 CEG/CD
- Lt Col Derek Jeffries, AFIT/CEM (Course Director)
- Maj Harry Krukenberg, AFIT/CEM (Facilitator)

Course Changes

- EWG Members Viewed Educational Requirements From A Sitting CE Commander's Perspective
- Realizing Many Commander Related Topics Are Addressed In MAJCOM Commander Courses; MGT 400 Was Streamlined To Contain Material Relating Directly To Being A BCE/CE Commander
  - Also Considered Redundant Topics Addressed In The On-scene Commander's Course And Fire Marshall Course
- Streamlining Was Accomplished By Deleting Some Bodies Of Knowledge (BOK) And Moving Selected Key Topics Under Related, Broader, BOKs
  - Example: Full-blown "Stand-alone" Guard/Reserve Management Lesson Removed, But Important Topics Retained By Moving Them Under Readiness Flight Overview

Course Changes

- Some Good To Know BOKs And Topics That Did Not Relate Directly To The Revised Course Objective Will Be Provided To Students As Additional Information In The Form Of Handouts
- Freed Up 2½ Days To Allow Course To Be Combined With Another Educational/Training Need For New CE Commanders Such As The On-scene Commander Course, Fire Marshall Course, Or EOD Course
